

Social Networking Six-Pack: Facebook

April 9, 2008

Presented by Maureen Ambrosino, CMRLS

Very short history of Facebook

Who is actually using it? Some interesting stats to consider

Ready, set, create! Create your profile, send friend requests and more!

What can you use it for?

- Creating a Page for your library

- Creating a group

- Announcing an event

- Posting interesting links

- Your ideas?

Other handouts/links of interest:

Note: if you are viewing this document online, all these links are clickable!

Educause article: 7 Things You Should Know About Facebook

<http://www.educause.edu/ir/library/pdf/ELI7017.pdf>

Learning Technologies Centre (Manitoba, CA) - LTCWiki entry on Facebook history & educational uses

<http://ltc.umanitoba.ca:83/wiki/Facebook>

Jessamyn West blog post on why libraries should be socially networking

<http://www.librarian.net/stax/2266/why-should-libraries-be-socially-networking/>

Tame the Web blog post on how libraries can use social networks

<http://tametheweb.com/2008/01/28/building-a-community-create-your-own-social-network/>

Innovate: Journal of Online Education article "Places to Go: Facebook"

<http://innovateonline.info/index.php?view=article&id=517&action=article> (free account required)

Check us out on Facebook!

<http://www.facebook.com/pages/Shrewsbury-MA/Central-Massachusetts-Regional-Library-System/23648212864?ref=s>